Accommodation – 5 rooms and 1 suite:

Rumman suite has a king size four poster bed, sitting area with a kishani-tiled bathroom. The suite enjoys having renovated hand-made ceiling goes back to 1867. Each of the other 5 rooms has a different decorative personality that represents some of the eras that Damascus history has gone through. These decorations have been integrated in some corners, such as Fatemi, Omayyad, Fenician, Damascene and French. Every room has its own bathroom with a separate air-conditioning and floor heating. Internet is available for free throughout your stay. Dining: The house has a 500 years old arched and domed basement that used to be a wine cellar. We made sure to keep its atmosphere as original and warm as possible. It contains a cozy cheese and wine place. At the same place, finger food and selected wine-menu is served in addition to the oriental breakfast and the afternoon tea. For guests who really want to travel back to the history, we recommend this arched basement as a unique historical place. Your breakfast and afternoon tea can be served around the fountain of the House's petite courtyard. Beit Rumman breakfast, afternoon tea and Damascene still mineral water are free. Reservation
